

Back in Time - 13 - Westminster Road

by John Rabbitt

Two photographs of Westminster Road. The first photograph was taken in the early 1900s, looking straight down Westminster Road towards the crossroads with Ellesmere Road. The gentleman with the bowler hat is standing near Briarfield, 11 Westminster Road, the police officer would be standing near Rowsley Manor which would be on the right hand side. A photograph taken from the same location in 2020 is also shown.

Westminster Road circa 1900

Westminster Road 2020

The second photograph of Westminster Road shows Rowsley Manor in the 1950s. A corresponding photograph taken from the same position today would only show trees and no detail of the properties.

Westminster Road circa 1950
